

A photograph of a man and a woman standing side-by-side, looking towards the right. The man on the left is wearing a green face mask with yellow polka dots and a dark jacket. The woman on the right is wearing a black face mask and a blue and white striped sweater with a geometric pattern. They are in an outdoor setting at night, with a blurred background showing trees and a street light. A semi-transparent dark blue triangle is overlaid on the left side of the image, containing the text.

OUR NEWEST MEETING & EVENT EXPERIENCE

FORT EDMONTON
PARK

Learn about Indigenous culture and traditions at your next event in a unique and respectful way. Indigenous Peoples Experience is Fort Edmonton Park's newest meeting and event space, complete with fully activated exclusive experiences.

The venue is ideal for corporate meetings, team building events, small social gatherings and intimate office holiday parties.

Bookings are available Wednesdays - Sundays. Mondays and Tuesdays are available upon special request.

To book, please contact sales@fortedmontonpark.ca.

THE BASIC PACKAGE

The basic package includes:

- 3-hours of exclusive access to the Indigenous Peoples Experience venue, and
- The multimedia activation with 2 interpreters.

Cost: $1,500

MULTI-PURPOSE ROOM

In addition to the basic package, the multi-purpose room is available for meetings or social events.

Cost: Basic package + $1000

There is a minimum spend of $650 required on food and non-alcoholic beverages when booking the multi-purpose room.

The Indigenous Peoples Experience Experience is a dry facility and no alcohol is served inside. If you are looking for a social event with alcohol, please inquire to explore our many other venue options available throughout the park.

EXPERIENCE ADD-ONS

A variety of experience add-ons are available to enhance your experience. Each add-on is approximately an hour long and subject to 5% GST.

Mikiwap Tipi Experience

As a year-round outdoor team building opportunity led by a cultural expert, your team will go through the process of setting up a tipi, or mîkiwâhp, in the traditional nêhiyawak (Cree) style. A combination of storytelling, instruction and historical knowledge immerses participants in Cree teaching surrounding this important cultural symbol.

All hands on deck for 12 participants but good for groups up to 30.

Cost: Basic package + $800 + $75 interpreter fee

Double-ball wêpitisowêwêpahikan

Get outside and active with this year-round traditional Indigenous game, wêpitisowêwêpahikan or Double ball! Test your speed, accuracy and dexterity in our beautiful river valley. Or turn it into a competition relay and test your teamwork skills!

This is a great experience for groups of 20 people playing at one time. No minimum is required.

Cost: Basic package + $10/person + $75 interpreter fee

Cree Syllabics cahkipêhikanak

The nêhiyawak (Cree) people have a vibrant and rich oral tradition and language is central to culture. In this facilitated discussion with Cultural experts, your team will explore the history of the Cree language, its role in contemporary society, and try your hand at translating your company values into usable Syllabics demonstrating your corporate commitment to Treaty.

This experience includes copies of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission (TRC) recommendations, materials for email signatures, corporate values written in syllabic to incorporate Indigenous culture into your workplace and conversations around land acknowledgement.

This is a year-round indoor classroom-style activity good for any size group.

Cost: Basic package + $500

The cost includes an interpreter to facilitate the conversation and the preparation time required in advance.

Facilitated Reconciliation Presentation and Discussion

What does reconciliation mean to your company? How do your values align with the Truth and Reconciliation Commission recommendations? What can you do to promote cultural awareness within your organization? In this facilitated discussion, you'll explore Indigenous culture with our experienced Indigenous guides and get to the heart of what reconciliation means.

This is a year-round indoor classroom-style activity good for any size group.

Cost: Basic package + $500

The cost includes an interpreter to facilitate the conversation and the preparation time required in advance.